The Evolution of the Pearson Baccalaureate History Curriculum

Origins of the IB History Curriculum

The International Baccalaureate (IB) History course has long been recognized for its rigorous approach to understanding historical events, critical analysis, and development of research skills. Initially, the curriculum was largely centered around regional or national histories, focusing on specific countries or periods, which provided deep dives into particular contexts.

Introduction of the "Global" Perspective

Over the years, however, educators and curriculum developers recognized the limitations of a narrow focus, particularly the risk of fostering a limited worldview among students. Consequently, the IB history curriculum began to evolve towards a more global perspective, emphasizing interconnectedness and understanding multiple viewpoints.
