2. Provide Clear Instructions

Ensure students understand each item on the checklist and know how to evaluate their peer's work objectively and respectfully.

3. Encourage Specific Feedback

Rather than general comments like "good job" or "needs work," teach students to give specific suggestions, such as "The introduction could be more engaging by starting with a question" or "This paragraph needs more evidence to support your claim."

4. Foster a Supportive Environment

Create a classroom culture where students feel comfortable giving and receiving feedback. Emphasize the importance of kindness, respect, and constructive criticism.

5. Use a Two-Pass System

First, students review the content and organization of the essay. Then, they check language, mechanics, and style. This systematic approach ensures comprehensive editing.

6. Incorporate Self-Assessment

Encourage students to use the checklist to evaluate their own drafts before peer review, fostering self-awareness and responsibility for their writing.
