Origins and Historical Context of French Romanticism

Historical Background

The roots of French Romanticism can be traced back to the socio-political upheavals of the late 18th century, particularly the French Revolution (1789). The revolution challenged traditional authority, ushering in ideals of liberty, equality, and fraternity. These ideals fostered a climate of intellectual freedom that encouraged expressive experimentation in both literature and arts.

Reaction Against Classicism

Romanticism arose as a reaction against the strict rules and rationalism of Neoclassicism.
