These lessons are organized systematically, starting with greetings and introductions and gradually progressing to more nuanced expressions like "nu," which involves understanding Korean speech levels and cultural nuances.

Section 1: Greetings and Basic Expressions

1.1 Importance of Greetings in Korean Culture

In Korean society, greetings are not just simple exchanges but are deeply rooted in cultural norms emphasizing respect and hierarchy. Proper greetings convey politeness and social awareness, making them an essential part of language acquisition for learners wishing to communicate effectively and courteously.

The TTMIK Level 1 curriculum begins with fundamental greetings, such as:

- Audio Practice: Learners listen to native speakers, imitating pronunciation.

- Repetition and Drills: Repetition exercises reinforce correct pronunciation and intonation.

This multi-modal approach ensures that learners not only memorize phrases but also understand their appropriate contexts, a critical factor in mastering greetings.

The course emphasizes real-life applicability, encouraging learners to practice greetings in various settings—formal meetings, casual encounters, or virtual conversations. It also highlights cultural nuances, such as bowing when greeting elders or superiors, which are often paired with verbal expressions.

By integrating cultural insights with language instruction, TTMiK ensures learners develop a well-rounded understanding of greetings, fostering confidence in initiating conversations.
