- Alternative or apocryphal Jewish writings that resemble "new" scriptures
- Misinterpretations or modern reinterpretations of Jewish texts in relation to the New Testament

In this article, we will explore these themes to clarify the distinctions and connections between Jewish texts and the Christian New Testament.

The Hebrew Bible (Tanakh): The Core Sacred Texts of Judaism

To understand the context of "Jewish new testamentoe," it is essential to first understand the core texts of Judaism?the Tanakh.

What is the Tanakh?

The Tanakh is an acronym derived from its three main sections:

- Torah (The Law) ? The first five books (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy) that contain laws, commandments, and narratives foundational to Jewish belief.
- Nevi'im (The Prophets) ? Historical and prophetic books, including Joshua, Judges, Kings, Isaiah, Jeremiah, and others.
- Ketuvim (The Writings) ? A diverse collection including Psalms, Proverbs, Job, and other poetic and philosophical texts.

The Tanakh is written primarily in Hebrew, with some portions in Aramaic.

on biblical stories.

Jewish Messianic Movements

- Certain groups believe in a messianic figure and produce writings that seek to reveal new insights or revelations.
- These are not recognized as canonical but reflect ongoing spiritual explorations.
