They serve as a supplementary resource for sorority recruitment committees to assess qualities that may not be fully captured by grades and activities alone.

At the University of Kentucky, many sororities value recommendations because they:

- Provide a personal perspective on the applicant's character and personality.
- Demonstrate a pre-existing relationship or endorsement from trusted community members.
- Help differentiate applicants in a highly selective process.

However, it's important to note that requirements vary among different sororities, with some considering recommendations optional, while others view them as highly beneficial or even necessary.
